The famous Eastern Indonesia region has abundant natural wealth. Ternate city included as eastern Indonesia region as it located in North Maluku Province. The city surrounded by sea and consists of eight small islands and three of them are uninhabited. It gorgeous, swathed with jungle and wild clove trees area. Read more: here. This magnificent tourism of Ternate is not equal to conditions of marginalized children who live in the city of Ternate. There are at least 50 kids who live in vulnerable groups without enough access to studies as well as their time to playing around. They have limited time to maximize their reading interest. The book is expensive, and the libraries are only available in school or in public place, but only open in office hour. This condition triggers some youth to raise a program named ?Literasi Jalanan? (in English means Streets Literacy). Literasi Jalanan is a place for providing the books and access for the marginalized kids.

Work:

Assist kids to study, storytelling, and cultural exchange in 4 different location. As Literasi Jalanan has no shelter for kids, activities will be held on the street and traditional market.

Accommodation and food:

Volunteer will stay with local community. Sleeping bag is needed, self cooking, self management, local transport may available as public transport.

Tegalrejo Red-District area is prostitution area in Semarang Regency; there are more than 100 families who mostly work as sex workers or food sellers. We run this project since 2006, together with our mother organization PKBI. This work camp focus on improving quality life of marginalized kids so they will threaten fairly and less discriminated. Most of the children living in this area don't have birth certificate, since their parent don't have identity card either. On the other hand, they couldn't afford higher level of school, and must faces high-risk-sexual activity scene (such as violence, sex bargaining, or sexual exploitation) as their playing ground. By this situation we worked with local stakeholder to provide a shelter called 'Rumah Belajar' or 'Study Center' where children can read books, make handicraft, fun studying, and cross cultural understanding with volunteer.

Work:

Create fun atmosphere for kids to studying self-hygiene, good attitude by storytelling, games, drawing, etc. School campaign to minimize kids-discrimination, or other local issue. Volunteer also will help kids learn English, and world culture.

Accommodation and food:

IWC Volunteer house with shared toilet and bathroom, sleeping bag and mattress needed, and self-cooking.

Borobudur Village Heritage Project located nearby the Borobudur Temple Compound. The Borobudur Temple Compounds is the greatest Buddhist temple in the world. Nominated as one of World Heritage List, The Borobudur Compounds has the most complete Buddhist relief. In a year, there are approximately 2.9 million people came to see and learn Borobudur Temple Compound history and philosophy. Even so, people living nearby the sites were sees Borobudur only as a tourist attraction. Local community, who supposed to be the first guard line on sustainability preservation activity, mostly works as vendor in Borobudur Temple Compound. Starting in 2016, collaborated with local community and stakeholder, we want to raise awareness of local people to be more involved in preserving their own cultural site. We believe that Borobudur Temple Compound should be preserved not only by visitor who come to Borobudur, but also people living nearby.

Work:

Create fun atmosphere for kids in village to studying Borobudur Temple Compound and the history of it by storytelling, games, drawing, etc. Create creative media to promote local heritage, raising awareness local people about their heritage by campaign, either a cross-cultural understanding class.
