PARTNER

Although the official name is Centre of Orthopedic & Rehabilitation for Disabled Children (CORDC), the center is more commonly known as Lý Thu?ng Ki?t Hospital or A1 Hospital which offers treatment to both adults and children. The center was started as a physio project which was a joint humane project between ¿Terre des Hommes¿ (Germany) and the Ministry of Labour, Invalids & Social Affairs of Vietnam, with the aim of providing rehabilitation for all paralysed children in South Vietnam. The centre was then established in 1983, and in conjunction with many humane societies across the world has provided free health care to thousands of Vietnamese children. It provides rehabilitation treatment to adults & children who are usually referred here by their doctor or other hospitals.

WORK

Volunteers will spend most of their time in the day-care room working with disabled children. After around 2.30 p.m. when the parents come to pick them up, volunteers can then start cleaning and painting the walls.

Ky Quang Orphanage Pagoda was built in the early part of the 20th Century in 1924 and is quite famous in Ho Chi Minh City. The pagoda is now a place of charity for unlucky children and also helps treat diseases. Now, the pagoda is taking care and bringing up more than 200 children in the South of Vietnam. The children here have unfortunate backgrounds as many have been abandoned by their parents and relatives. Every few months, the monks find a new baby left in front of the pagoda gate. The head monk sometimes receives phone calls from hospitals requesting him to take in abandoned babies. At the moment, about 200 children are living in the Pagoda, their ages ranging from 5 days old to 40 years old. 90 of these are orphans that are suffering from cerebral-palsy, blindness or Down's syndrome. At present, about 30-40 local children have a chance to study for free at Ky Quang as some local teachers teach Vietnamese for them in the morning.

Volunteers will spend time with the children and help to improve their English, organize games and other activities for them. Volunteers will also do some manual work such as doing book binding for blind people. Volunteers will get closer to the children's life and try to build up a wider horizon for the children and encourage them to learn better for the brighter future.

Vietnam Friendship Village finds itself 15kms away from downtown of Hanoi. This is a charity project run by international committee who raise fund to help victims of chemical war in Vietnam. Founded in 1998 by the idea of an American veteran, the village is opened for disabled children whose parents are the veterans infected with the Agent Orange, the toxic chemical used in American war. Friendship Village is now a 'campus' housing up to 120 children and 40 veterans. The children aged 6 to 18 suffering from mental or physical disabilities are provided special education, medical rehabilitation and vocational training. In the terrace of the Village, VPV is establishing a new garden with the aim to provide fresh vegetable for the residents of the village.

In the garden, volunteers will help with clearing site, preparing soil, weeding and planting vegetables and fruit trees. In the village, volunteers will play with children, organize games in the classrooms, and try making flowers and embroideries with children.

An Lac Eco Community is a new ecological project to support people who live next to the rich Khe Ro Forest but still under poverty line. Their main income comes from farming but they also depend, either directly or indirectly, on the forest. Khe Ro provides local people with food, wood and non-timber products, that they need for household use or sell to make a living. The project tries to give these people a new perspective, to open up new opportunities and to ensure that the communities have sustainable livelihoods through community based ecotourism, while protecting their natural heritage as well as their culture.

WORK

Volunteers help raising awareness among local people about sustainable living environment (collecting garbage in the community and along the tourist tracks); paving the tracking route in the forest and along the streams, working together with local people in the garden or forest. Sharing and learning cultural, working skill with local people. Interacting with local children and teach them English.

Description of Workcamp: VPV60-GCC-14 GLOBAL GREENER CAMP 19/07 TO 26/07

This special workcamp will be hosted by Volunteers For Peace Vietnam (VPV) and its four wonderful local hosts: Vietnam Friendship Village, An Lac Eco Community, Tu Ne Eco Community and Co Bi Community.

* VPV is a non-profit, voluntary organisation that works to promote voluntary service as a mean of cultural and educational exchange among people, for peace and friendship, and as an approach to address social problems. VPV welcome hundred of international volunteers and engage thousands local volunteers in its project each year.

* Vietnam Friendship Village, located about 13km from Hanoi City Centre, is a campus caring for about 120 children with disabilities who are victims of toxic chemical (Agent Orange) during the war. VPV is working with the Village to create an organic garden to grow ¿non-chemical¿ vegetable for the children in the village.

* An Lac Eco Community, located about 170km to the northeast from Hanoi Capital, where many people are still living in poverty but they have a beautiful forest. VPV is working with the villagers to help them get out of poverty and maintain the eco life and traditional culture.

* Tu Ne Eco Community: located about 130km to the northwest from Hanoi Capital, where many people are still living in poverty but they have a beautiful forest. VPV is working with the villagers to help them get out of poverty and maintain the eco life and traditional culture.

* Co Bi Community, located about 70km to the east from Hanoi Capital, is in a local neighbourhood. Most of the people are farmers but there is already a threat of pollution due to waste and chemicals used for agriculture. VPV is working with local villagers to help building kindergartens and educate children on environment protection.

Work:

The goal of this project is to unite volunteers from different countries with Vietnamese volunteers to discuss and take action on environment protection. The work camp will be divided into 3 parts: Orientation (2 days), Project (5 days) and Final Event (1 day). In the orientation, volunteers will join an amazing game to explore the culture of Hanoi and also different issues regarding environment. Guest speakers will be invited to share with volunteers on global and local environmental challenges. The group will then be divided into 4 smaller groups joining 4 projects in which they will actually do concrete activities for the environment and people in the community.

* Vietnam Friendship Village: Volunteers will work in the organic garden for the disabled children in the village.

* An Lac Eco Community: Volunteers will work with local people to help protect the environment such as planting trees, making walk way, and raise awareness among local people and visitors about environment protection and eco life.

* Tu Ne Eco Community: Volunteers will work with local people to help protect the environment such as planting trees, making walk way, and raise awareness among local people and visitors about environment protection and eco life.

* Co Bi Community: Volunteers will help to organising educational activities for local children in primary school how to protect the environment and raise awareness among the local people about the environment.

At the final event, the whole group will reunite in Hanoi for a special day called Global Greener Day. In this event, 4 groups will report about what they have seen, what they have done and what they have learnt through the field activities. It will be also a cultural exchange day all the volunteers and the public.

Accommodation and food:

Volunteers will stay in a hostel in Hanoi in the first and the last few days of the program. In between volunteers will move to different projects, staying at local community house or host families. Mattresses and mosquito nets will be provided. Food will be prepared by the local host with help from volunteers.

Location: The first and last parts of the workcamp will be in Hanoi Capital. In between, volunteers will join different projects in different locations: Ha Noi Capital, Bac Giang Province, Hoa Binh Province, Hai Duong Province.

Requirements: Volunteers should be interested in environment issue.

Meeting point: ICYE Hanoi, No 56, Lane 99, Nguyen Phong Sac, Cau Giay, Hanoi, Vietnam.

Fee: 150Euro.
