DGV MTV 03 - Waldorf Kindergarten Samara
Permanent/minimum stay 1 months kids +18 Motivation letter

The main idea of the Waldorf pedagogical system is that childhood is a unique period in human life: it is impossible to consider this age as the same as the elder one. It is very important to give a child the opportunity for development in a natural way, according to the age and abilities.

There are 40 children in the Kindergarten at the moment. All of them are brought up in an atmosphere of joy, music, songs, theatre, tails, and festivals, warmed with love and care.

Task:

- Work with children, which may include playing games, toy-making, reading, painting, music, modeling, theatre, etc.
- Assistance in preparation for holidays and festivals
- Assistance to the staff in everyday work
- Organisation of any activity for parents (music, needlework, etc.)

Working schedule:

Monday-Friday 5-6 hours per day (an hour lunch break)

Saturday-Sunday - days off

Accommodation:

Apartment shared with other volunteers or a host family. If sharing an apartment with other volunteers, the volunteer will get monthly food money and will be asked to cook at home.

Minimum stay 1 month/Permanent

Motivation letter is needed

Participation fee for every project 150 EURO per month.

DGV 01 Argamak Samara
Envi +18 15/07/2013 - 31/07/2013

Horses are often an object for admiration, as horses are an embodiment of power and grace, beauty and intelligence. Nowadays riding a horse is not such a usual thing as it used to be in the Past. Today the admirers of the equestrian sport may find very few Riding clubs in the Samara region. Last year 'Argamak' offered equestrian classes, long horse rides and short riding excursions in the forest. The club is also known for dramatizing famous battles of different epochs. Argamak took part in numerous festivals and presented breathtaking horse tricks. Unfortunately nowadays only volunteers and the fans of equestrian take care of the club and the surrounding areas. For the locals 'Argamak' has a historical value. The club staff members need assistance of the volunteers in maintenance, restoration of the club as well as taking care of the animals. Military historical equestrian club 'Argamak' is located on the 18th km in the city of Samara, 20 km from the centre of city by public transport. It is possible to reach the main highway of Samara on foot. Right after you go out of the forest, you get to 'civilization'. The club is very close from the very active part of Samara. It is full of big shopping and entertainment centres. The territory of the club is surrounded by the forest. A little lake is not far from the club. One can find a cottage village very close to the club which makes the life of the animals more complicated because of the forest and lake pollution. This project is offered to those who are not afraid of hard work in the open air and would not mind basic life conditions.

Recruitment:

age 18+

construction skills are welcome
motivation to take care of the animals experience of 'communication' with animals is welcome zeal and diligence in physical and routine work
tolerance and patience
creativity and new ideas
basic Russian is very welcome

Tasks:

- construction of the fence
- cleaning the surrounding territories
- cleaning the lake
- assistance in taking care of the animals (feeding, cleaning, walking)
- assistance in construction of the stables
- cleaning the shed

Accommodation:

Very basic conditions. Tents or a wooden house. Summer shower outside. Summer toilette outside. Please you're your sleeping bags and carpets with you. No internet access on the territory of the club. There's a possibility to have internet access in the internet café or in the office of our organization.

Food:

Breakfast, lunch, dinner and tea breaks will be provided in open air on the territory of the club.

Participation fee is 50 euro (To cover administration costs paid upon the arrival).

Partner:

Upsala-Circus is a unique social circus project that exists in Russia since 2000. The goal of Upsala-Circus is the social adaptation of neglected children and youth by means of social circuswork. The aim of Upsala-Circus work is to offer an alternative to street life, reintegrate children into society and create favorable conditions for their thorough development. Mastering circus skills allows children to fulfill their need for risk by socially accepted means. Circus is a bright and colorful world, attractive to everybody and open for every child notwithstanding his or her skills, physical abilities and social status. More information in English can be found here: <http://upsala-zirk.org>

Work:

Volunteers' activity takes 4 to 6 hours per day 5 times a week. The project takes place during the summer training camp for young circus artists. Volunteers will assist the trainers during daily activities: workshops, classes, training, leisure, etc. The project encourages volunteers to suggest and lead their own workshops (dancing, art, acting, sport activities, etc.). Participants of the work camp will manage the mentioned above activities aimed to develop the children and help their circus career.

Leisure time:

The work camp is held in the suburb of Saint Petersburg - Vsevolozhsk. The picturesque area offers great possibilities for leisure: sport games together with children, outside games, festivals and evening entertainment. Volunteers will be involved in all activities of circus life and will be able to try themselves as real circus artists.

On the weekends volunteers will have a possibility to explore one of the most beautiful cities of the world, which name is Saint Petersburg. There are a lot of wonderful places, such as: the Hermitage, Peterhof, Pavlovsk, Pushkin and some others. Also there are many cinemas, entertaining centers, pubs and nightclubs. An overnight trip to the city can be organized for volunteers for extra fee (20 euro).

Accommodation:

Volunteers will live together with children in a big cottage house. There will be common shower and bathroom. Volunteers will be provided with meals prepared by the chef of the summer camp.

Vsevolzhsk is located 7 km away from St. Petersburg. Public transportation is available (bus, suburban train). For the weekend volunteers can stay in the city if they wish (one night stay can be organized by the hosting organization for extra fee of 20 euro). Visa support is provided.

PROJECT:

The 'Venice of the North' is the result of a vast urban project begun in 1703 under Peter the Great. World Heritage of St-Petersburg consist well-known historical center of modern St. Petersburg, the palace and park ensembles of its suburbs - Peterhof , Tsarskoye Selo, Pavlovsk , Gatchina .The historic center of St. Petersburg is included in UNESCO World Heritage (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/540>) "Historic Centre of Saint Petersburg and Related Groups Monuments". Country Houses and Orthodox Monasteries of the St-Petersburg region were built in 18-19 centuries. Among the owners there were members of the royal family and famous statesmen, military leaders, artists, composers, architects, writers. Therefore many of country houses were damaged, especially the parks, landscapes and interiors. We want to bring the former meaning to the country estates as pieces of world heritage. Today the restoration of the country estates is an important deal together with the renewal of the unique parks. There are Imperial estates Gatchina, Repino, Gostilitsy, Ropsha and other historical places. It is combines, "mobile" work camp. Volunteers will live in the St-Petersburg , are permitted to see different parts of the Russian Culture Heritage, can learn architectural styles of the Russian construction indifferent historical periods (17-19 centuries). The camp is held in the year marking the 300th anniversary of male Orthodox monastery of Alexander Nevsky Lavra. "Alexander Nevsky Lavra - is not just a cultural landmark. This is where many intertwined historical subjects, it is the centre of spiritual education and high Christian culture in the heart of the northern capital of Russia. During this camp on August 19 in Russian Christians celebrate the Apple Spas. In Europe, the holiday is celebrated according to the Julian calendar on the 6 August.

WORK:

 Age: 18 - 99

Project:

The project is for adventurous volunteers who prefer to spend their time deep in the life of a different country. This particular experience provides volunteers with an opportunity to live in rural life and nature in a Russian village. This village is still a center for cultural and artistic life in this region. This unique place - village Divnogorye - can be translated to Wonder Mountains. The village is situated next to a natural preserve. It includes findings for scientists of different areas (archeologists, ornithologists, geologists and architects). A river, high chalk hills as the border of ice age period and a breathtaking view of the valley brings to this place artists, pilgrims and nature lovers. InterAction Club is renovating its summer house in the natural preserve of Divnogorye. There are 2 village houses, which are used in future for international camps. Volunteers of this year will prepare the place for future camping and both houses for future accommodation of international groups of volunteers.

Work:

There will be a lot of manual work and construction. Volunteers will have to take care of the garden, repair some parts of the house, of the gates and make some outdoor and indoor decorations. We invite volunteers who are able to carry out physical work, carry heavy objects, skilled in carpentry. There will be opportunities to implement creative ideas of volunteers who work with metal or wood.

Location:

The project will run in the most beautiful place of the Black Earth region of European Russia - in the Open-air museum and natural preserve Divnogorye www.divnogor.ru (which can be translated as "Wonder Mountains"). This place is surrounded by villages, the next big city (84 000 inhabitants) named Liski. It takes 30 min by train or 1 hour by bus to reach it. A night train from Moscow brings volunteers directly to Liski. Meeting places for volunteers: Moscow and Liski.

Accommodation:

Volunteers will live in tents. Water for shower will be heated from the sun, the river is 15 min walk from the host house, toilets are very simple (of the latrine type). Volunteers will cook for themselves on the electrical oven. Drinking water will be taken from a dwell. There will be 2 local camp leaders, who will support volunteers with practical issues. On weekends volunteers will go sightseeing. In case of bad weather there is an opportunity to use the neighbours house. Tents and mattresses provided. It is important that you bring warm clothes and warm sleeping bag, especially for night. Toilets are outside and they are of latrine kind. There will be summer showers with water heated by the sun and banya - Russian type of sauna.

Food:

Meals will be provided by a canteen in individual packs and there will be no special meals for vegetarians.

Leisure:

Excursions and day trips will be organized to natural preserve and open air museum Divnogorye, to the neighbor towns and to the city Voronezh. Additionally volunteers can swim without any limitations, go fishing, hiking and take sunbaths!

Language:
English, Russian is welcome

Location:
Ryazan is situated in the center of the European part of Russia, is often referred to as the symbol of Russian province.
Ryazan is a large historical, cultural, student, transport, military and industrial city. It is located in the Central Federal District, the distance to Moscow is about 200 km (it takes about 2,5 hours to get to Moscow). The population of the Ryazan region is approximately 1 200 000 people.
Ryazan is an old picturesque town with many churches, museums and theatres. It was founded over 900 years ago. The Kremlin is the most ancient place of interest in Ryazan. Ryazan is a birthplace of a famous Russian poet Sergey Esenin. Some of the Nobel Prize laureates were born here too, such as academician Pavlov or Soljenitsyn one of the most famous Russian writers.
There are several national parks and reserves around Ryazan region. The National park "Mescherskiy" is famous for the beautiful lakes and rivers (some of them are with "peat water"), coniferous forests, animals from the Red Book.

Partner organization:
NGO "Environmental Ryazan alliance" (ERA). www.erarzn.ru
The organization was set up in 2010 by an action group having taken part in the forest fire fighting in the Ryazan Region.
The main purpose of the organization is to unite our society, direct its attention to environmental issue, pollution and order control in the Ryazan Region, Russia and in the whole world. Our main projects: "Urban Ecology" - the provision of urban amenities; an international action "Let's do it!"; "Forest forum" - the project of the regional woods regeneration, the environmental education of pupils and students; "Clean Pra river" - the collection of household refuse along the Pra river in the Meshchyorsky National Park and the promotion of ecological awareness of campers.

Work:

1. The Ryazan region is one of the Russia regions which suffered the most for the fires of 2010. In nature it takes the forest from 20 till 70 years to rehabilitation. The project aim is to accelerate these processes.
Project tasks: to care of young plants, monitoring and prevention of occurrence of fires. We plan to work with volunteer from all over Russia.
2. We plan to make "pieces" of different countries in one of the public gardens in Ryazan for children to study the world and we need your ideas and help. Please, think about flowerbeds, decorations for benches, patterns for fences, compositions and so on.
3. We'll take part in "Clean Pra river" project for 2 days (kayaks).
4. Music festival (jazz, blues, etc.) for 3 last days. Have fun and take part in action against garbage.

Accommodation:

Volunteers will live in tents in the student camping in a very beautiful place with 3 lakes (40 km from Ryazan, there is a public transport to this place). Meal is provided. There are 2 supermarkets near camp-place. There is a doctor in the camp. Pharmacies and post-offices are in Ryazan. We'll have the mobile Internet point.

Please bring working clothes, sleeping bag and tourist carpet, mosquito repellents, swimming suit, raincoat, closed ankle boots or trainers, wool sweater, scarf or sun hat, light, cards with sights of your Counties & cities, your favourite musical instruments (not big), something for your country presentation in the public garden, etc.

Free time activities:

Sightseeing in Ryazan and region, international cultural events, friendly evenings with local people in very beautiful nature places, meetings about ecological problems all over the world, festival events.

Requirements:

Volunteers have experience in tourism are really welcomed!
Volunteers with heavy diseases aren't recommended to take part in this work camp, it could be hard to get to hospital very fast (from Pra river especially).

Transportation:

2,5-3 hours from Moscow by train or bus.

W4U-11 Gathering houses aka 'S Miru po Domu' (Moscow)
18-31 August 2013, KIDS/ART; 10 int. vols, 18 +

Location:
Moscow is the capital of Russia :)

Work:
S Miru po Domu is a children day camp for about 50-60 kids from large families. The work is dealing with the children - communicating with them and sharing your ideas. During these 2 weeks you will be building small copies of national houses from all over the world e.g. Indian wigwam, nomads' tent, Chinese fanza and Russian izba. You will be discussing the plan together with the kids in a group in which they will be divided, building and then decorating your house to prepare it for the highest point of the project and final event - The Festival "S Miru po Domu" (Gathering Houses) when we will be showing theatrical presentations of our houses and making role-playing of how to drink tea in different countries and take care of the guests. There is a lot of freedom for the creativity and all your ideas are very welcome! Also loads of hand-made workshops will take place in the camp e.g. plaster mask and pizza making or preparing of the national décor items for houses. Several big games for the whole camp will be organized and you can take part in them. Moreover, some time will also be left for sport and activities, so outside games from all over the world are the best idea to be realized here.

The aim of this project is to highlight the importance of the "house" among young generation, to draw their attention to the national traditions and customs and have a look on the ones from different cultures, to popularize hospitality and show the kids the unique atmosphere of house holding.

Accommodation:
You will be staying at the youth centre on the territory where the workcamp will take place. There is a kitchen and 2 bathrooms, which will be shared (gender divided). You will be provided with the mats and pillows, but make sure you have you own sleeping bag with you. Meal will be prepared as a group. Requirements: motivation form (with short description of your vision of the house you can build up with the kids). A basic knowledge of pedagogy is preferable.

Free time activities:

Moscow is a huge megalopolis which offers a great number of the entertainments. Except several activities and excursions which your team will be provided with by the organizers, you will get a lot of opportunities for the exploring of this vivid and bright non-stop city. A lot of places of sightseeing, museums, galleries and parks - it is never a problem to find something to do there. The summer in the city is also worth of saying as the endless amount of various bars and clubs makes Moscow night-life one of the most world famous.
